

The reason St. Martin's is situated as it is on our lot is so that the Altar can be on the East side of the building so that the congregation faces East when in worship—in anticipation of the resurrection.

The Consecrated part of the building (outlined in black) is called the SANCTUARY

When a church is built it is dedicated or consecrated which makes it a Sanctuary